"FAREWELL OLD TEXAS."

Returned Populist's Speech Before a Club.

At Lemon Springs, Moore county, last Saturday, a white supremacy club was organized and many populists enrolled as members. Before organization Hon. Duncan E. McIver, of Sanford, spoke, dividing time with two fusion advocates, E. A. Cole, candidate for the senate from Moore and Randolph, and Robert Burns, candidate for the house. Mr. McIver was more than a victor and completely routed the "traders." We quote the following from a special to the News and Observer:

"Mr. McIver then announced the object of the meeting and the club was organized with a large membership. J. J. Edwards, who has been a leading Populist here, was elected chairman. Mr. Edwards arose and said: "Gentlemen, I thank you for the honor you have conferred on me, and I trust I will always prove true to the great trust you have placed in me. I have been a populist since the party was organized, but, gentlemen, I can never be a Republican. As I stand before you I bid adieu to the fusion party. I am reminded of the farmer who moved to Texas. The drought came and destroyed his crop, his hopes and his support, and he was on the verge of starvation when he wrote on the door: "Farewell old Texas; I leave thee; I may go to hell but I will never come back to thee.' (Great applause.)

After the club was organized a unanimous vote of thanks was tendered Hon. D. E. McIver. Arrangements are being made for a big rally and barbecue here in the near future. The rank and file of the populist party, men who have white principles can't, and are not going to, support the fusion ticket any further, and they are determined to put the hungry crowd of pie-eaters out November 7th. The good work will go on where there is principle.

DO NOT MISS IT.

The Speaking and Barbecue at Goldston, Chatham County.

A splendid opportunity will be offered all who wish to take a day off and spend a delightful time hearing good speeches and eating a good barbecued dinner. On Friday the C. F. & Y. V. Railway will run a special train from this city to Goldston, Chatham county, the occasion being a grand political rally and barbecue at that place. Goldston is a central point for two counties and there will be a large attendance. The fare for the round trip is only $1.25 from this city.

The dinner will be served by a large number of Chatham's pretty young ladies. This feature alone will be a drawing card. Prominent speakers are billed to speak, among them Hon. Lee S. Overman, C. B. Watson, Major Henry A. London, and A. L. Brooks, democratic candidate for solicitor in this district.

These are all fluent and eloquent speakers; but it will pay any man who has never heard him to make the trip just to listen to Major London. Many of our people have never heard Mr. Brooks in a political speech and have missed a treat by not hearing him.

WILLIAM MADE A FIRE

And Burned a Hole in The Floor of a Freight Car.

A Weary Willie who gave his name as S. A. Bennett was locked up by Officer Whittington this morning for damages done to one of the Southern's freight cars in which he lodged last night. William says he was beating his way from Tampa to Richmond and came here on a freight train from the south last night. Being homeless, pennyless, friendless and hungry he was compelled to lodge in a freight car. During the night he became cold and after a long search for fuel he made a fire in the car. He went to sleep and when he waked up he was astonished to find that his fire had burned a hole in the floor of his sleeping apartment. He went out and brought in a hat full of sand to cover up his deed, but afterward carelessly kicked the sand from the place and when he went out in search of breakfast, left it smoking. One of the Southern's employees was attracted by the smoke and had William arrested.

When a reporter called at the jail this morning William was cursing himself about being so careless with that sand.

JUDGE ROBERT PAINE DICK,

Passed Peacefully Away at 8:20 Last Night,

HIS DEATH WAS NOT A SURPRISE.

Surrounded by His Nearest and Dearest Loved Ones—The Funeral—A Short Sketch of His Life.

A deep, subdued and solemn hush fell upon the city last night when the news was passed from one to another that Judge Dick was dead. Men seemed to walk the streets with lighter tread, and while his death was not a surprise, the announcement carried with it a deep and profound tinge of genuine sorrow. He was called from earth to heaven at 8:20 o'clock last night.

Judge Dick's health has been failing for a long time, although up to a few months ago he was able to discharge his duties as judge of the western district of North Carolina. When it finally became apparent that he could no longer discharge those duties he tendered his resignation. At that time he had gone to Baltimore to enter a hospital for treatment, where he underwent an operation. He seemed to be much improved by his stay there and returned to his home in this city.

His improvement, however, was not destined to be permanent and ere long he began to sink. It was evident to his physicians and family that his earthly career was drawing to a close although at times he seemed to improve and a ray of hope would gleam in the hearts of his friends. But the summer of his mortal life was passing to autumn and as surely as the deadly frosts of winter follow the golden tints of fall, so surely was the autumn of his life stealing down to the cold, dark winter of death.

The prayers of loved ones could not thwart the plans of his Heaveuly father. He had spent a long and useful life here and God had beckoned him to come to his everlasting home. His friends could not see the beckoning hand and prayed that he might be spared; but 'twas not the Father's will and as quietly as the sun sinks behind the western hills and the darkness of temporal night envelops the world, just so quietly did the soul of this good man leave its tenement of clay.

All the immediate members of the family were at his bedside when the summons came.

The funeral will be conducted tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock from the First Presbyterian church of which he was an honored official member The pastor Rev. Dr. E W. Smith will conduct the services and interment will be made in Greene Hill cemetery.

SHORT SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.

He was the son of Hon. John M. Dick and Parthenia P. Dick, and was born in this city October 5, 1823. He was prepared for college in Greensboro at the celebrated Caldwell Institute, and entered the University at Chapel Hill in 1840, where he graduated with distinction in June, 1843. He was admitted to the bar in 1845, and soon afterward located at Wentworth.

He was married June 27, 1848, to Miss Mary E. Adams, of Pittsylvania county, Va. Soon after his marriage he removed to Greensboro, where he spent the remainder of his useful and eventful life.

In 1852 he was a member of the democratic national convention in Baltimore. In 1853 he was appointed by President Pierce, U. S. District Attorney for North Carolina, which office he held until February, 1861. He was a delegate in the democratic national convention at Charleston and Baltimore in 1860. At Charleston he cast the vote which gave Senator Stephen A. Douglas a majority of the convention. At Baltimore he was the only member of the North Carolina delegation that remained and acted in the national convention from which the southern delegates seceded.

* * * * * *

He was a member of the council of State during a part of the administration of Gov. Vance. In 1864 he was elected senator from Guilford county as a peace man, and took a prominent part in the legislature in discussing all measures that tended to peace and to the restoration of the union of the states.

In May, 1865, he was appointed by President Johnson U. S. District Judge for North Carolina. Two months later he resigned as he would not take the test oath of office (known as the "iron clad)."

In March, 1867, he was a member of the convention that organized the republican party of this State. He remained a republican from that time until his death.

In April 1868 he was elected by a large majority as Associate Justice of the Supreme court; he remained on that bench four years and assisted in shaping and directing the new mode of legal pleading and procedure introduced by the constitution of 1868.

In June 1872 he was appointed by President Grant District Judge of the western district of North Carolina, which position he held with distinguished ability until a few months ago when failing health rendered it necessary for him to resign. He administered with great mercy and forbearance the unpopular Internal Revenue laws.

He always took great interest in the progress of the state, in agriculture, internal improvements and all industrial pursuits. He was an earnest advocate of temperance reform and delivered many addresses on the subject.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Sept. 13, '98.

From the looks of Main street one would think that this is the dullest day we have had this year. The fact is that there are no wagons and horses around which the people gather and trade and talk, standing in the street. We trust the people will soon get used to this.

James Sharp, colored, was bound over to court last night by Magistrate Steel for cutting Ernest Williams while on a spree Sunday.

Don't be alarmed if you hear a rumbling like that of an earthquake, it is nothing but Jarrell's dinner gong.

A young man from a nearby town rode in yesterday and thought that surely he had missed his town when he found there were no hitching posts on Main street.

The wire has been put up for the Archdale telephone line, the phone will be put up in a day or so.

The greatest attraction in town now is "Bill" Jones' mule. He can trot all day in one direction in the shade of a tree. He can kick the shortening out of a biscuit and never break the crust.

The foundation has been laid for Dr. Turner's new house on the corner of Main and Russell streets.

Gen. Wheeler Passes Through.

Gen. Joseph Wheeler, family and aides passed through today on No. 36. General Wheeler was dressed in full uniform of Major-General of the United States army. A WOMAN'S CHARRED BODY

Found in The Debris After a Destructive Fire.

REIDSVILLE VISITED BY FLAMES

It Is Thought The Woman Was Murdered And Fire Resorted to To Hide The Crime.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Reidsville, Sept. 13—Fire broke out in Ogburn's livery stable at 2 o'clock this morning and when discovered was beyond control. The flames spread rapidly and in a short while five adjoining stores caught and were soon reduced to ashes. The stores were occupied by colored people. Frank Wright, a colored merchant, lost everything his store contained. The whole block was of old frame buildings and the flames fairly leaped from one store to another. At one time the destruction of the Southern depot and Piedmont Hotel seemed assured and good work by the firemen was all that saved them.

This morning the body of a colored woman was found buried in the debris. It was too badly burned to be identified but it is supposed that she came here on the excursion from Winston. It is generally believed that the woman was murdered and the buildings burned to hide the crime.

Nothing definite as to losses and insurance can be obtained. Mr. Ogburn's loss is comparatively small, he having saved all his stock, carriages and harness.

A military band of sixteen pieces was organized here last night and the boys propose to be ready in a short while to furnish some good music.

NEGROES ESCAPE FROM JAIL.

Four Prisoners Gain Their Liberty by Knocking the Jailer Down.

Special to the Telegram.

Winston, Sept. 13—Jim Patrick, Jim Hairston, Irwin Royall and William Stamps, all colored, broke from Forsyth's jail last night about 7:30.

Rom Lewis, the turnkey, was putting a prisoner in the jail, when Irwin Royall hit him with a piece of iron and knocked him down and the four negroes rushed by him, making good their escape. They carried Mr. Lewis' pistol with them.

Jailer Masten offers a reward of $10 for the capture of either of the escaped men.

All of the negroes were in jail for larceny.

AN IDEAL CAMP SITE.

The Report of Col. Charles Smart on Camp Black.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Sept. 13—The report of Col. Charles Smart, of the medical department, in his exhaustive review of Camp Black, was given out today. After several statements regarding the cleanliness and lack of medicine in some quarters, he criticises furloughing those men who are not strong enough to travel and care for themselves, which is abused by the pressure brought to bear upon the authorities by their friends.

The site of the camp is an ideal one, though some low spots around retain the surface water. He believes the fresh breezes prevent the development of malaria. Some pools have been filled and others will be if the camp is made permanent.

Geneva, Sept. 13.—A special train which will carry the body of the dead empress to Vienna, arrived here today. It consists of a special car for the coffin, a sleeping car, and two saloon cars for the use of the officials accompanying the body, and an ordinary passenger car.

The interior of the funeral car is draped in black throughout. The drapery is fringed in the most simple manner without attempt at ornamentation. The car has six black-curtained windows. In the centre a low platform has been constructed upon which the coffin will be placed.

An Era of Prosperity.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Sept. 13.—George Gould, who is about to sail for America, was interviewed this morning. He said: "From all I have heard from home since I have been abroad, I am convinced that we are on the eve of an era of prosperity, perhaps unprecedented. The busines outlook couldn't be better, with the splendid harvest, which will be very beneficial to railroads and everybody."

Most of the Seventh Dissatisfied.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Norfolk, Sept. 13—Most of the Seventh Army Corps, under Gen. Lee, now at Camp Cuba Libre at Jacksonville, are dissatisfied and want to be mustered out, especially the Virginians, according to Getire, who returned today. They are dissatisfied because they were given no chance to fight, and prefer returning home to garrison duty at Havana.

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES.

The cause of education is on the upgrade, evidently. Never before have such flattering prospects attended the opening of our schools and colleges as we see this fall. Our local graded schools were so increased in numbers that extra teachers have been employed. Such reports come from other towns and cities. Wake Forest College has opened well; the same is true of Guilford College, Oak Ridge and Whitsett Institute; Trinity opened thirty per cent. higher than last year; Greensboro Female College opened with the best prospects in its history and today we have the good news that the University opens under the most favorable auspices, with great enthusiasm. The senior class is the largest in forty years.

Speaking of the opening of the University, a special from Chapel Hill to this morning's Raleigh Post says:

"There are 400 boys on the hill tonight. Registration has been going on all day, and at 6:30 this evening 391 names had been enrolled. Ten states are represented by students. The senior class numbers 60, the largest in forty years. Great enthusiasm prevails at the opening. It is a great day for the University."

And all this shows that the old state is going forward. It shows that our people are waking up to the necessity of educating the boys and girls of the land. It shows, further, that the success of one school or college does not detract from another. We rejoice with all friends of education at the splendid openings this fall.

The speech of Col. J. E. Boyd before the republican convention here yesterday was disappointing to his friends. They say he lacked his old-time snap and vigor. He ridiculed the cry of negro domination and said the democrats raised a great and hideous scarecrow because a negro happened to be appointed road overseer down here some where, probably in some place where there was not a white man fit for the place." Aside from being a false statement it was cold comfort for the negroes present.

What Aycock did to Dr. Thompson yesterday at Concord was a plenty. It was a battle royal and Aycock completely flayed his opponent Dr. Thompson is wily and wiry, but he could not ward off the powerful onslaught of the brilliant Wayne statesman.

In the contest over the judgeship in the twelfth district between Judge Norwood and Carter in quo warranto proceedings, the court has signed judgment in favor of Judge Norwood. He can now proceed to get drunk again and give them another whack at him.

The populists of this county gave the republicans two for one on the trade—the republicans getting eight, the populists four. The only office of any value to the holder given the populists is that of register of deeds, the others being one member of the house, coroner and one county commissioner. On a basis of the salaries attached, the populists only get about one-fourth.

The republican nominee for the state senate from this county is a recent democrat, and it is said that he never voted a republican ticket in his life. For many years he was the superior court clerk of Randolph county, elected on the democratic ticket. After Randolph was placed in the Fourth congressional district he was an aspirant for the democratic nomination for congress, but failed to reach the goal. Two years ago he was an elector for the Palmer and Buckner ticket; and now a full-fledged republican with a new and glittering uniform and a leader of the republican party. Such a political turncoat is Mr. G. Sam Bradshaw, whom the populists of Guildford are asked to support for the state senate.

THAT OLD "GAG."

Chairman A. E. Holton Sending Out an Erroneous Interview.

Republican State Chairman Holton has had several thousand little circulars printed in Winston for distribution throughout the state, says the Sentinel. They read as follows:

READ AND TAKE WARNING.

Gen. W. R. Cox, secretary of the United States senate, in an interview published in the Washington Post of September 2d, 1898, gives away the secret of the democratic policy in North Caiolina in the following words:

"With a return of the democrats to power in North Carolina, I think it safe to predict that measures will be adopted as they have been in South Carolina, Louisiana and Mississippi looking to the elimination of a large per cent. of the ignorant and purchasable vote."

General Cox writes the Raleigh papers as follows in regard to the interview:

"The language employed and idea conveyed is that of the interviewer and not my own. I made no such statement as contained in the quoted extract. In the hotel corridor the interviewer was stating to me the contents of an article in the Atlanta Constitution in regard to the deplorable political condition in North Carolina. In preparing the interview after leaving me from which the above purports to be an extract together with other interviews for the Post, the reporter evidently fell into the error of confounding what was passing in his mind with what was said by me. I was not familiar with the election law of the states referred to but did know the constitution of North Carolina expressly forbids the legislature from passing any laws disfranchising any individual or class of persons and even should the legislature be disposed to do so, it would be prevented by our constitution. Wm. R. Cox."

Auntie Speaks Her Thoughts.

A good many women who are suffering intensely with the heat as they go about attending to their work for the sick soldiers can sympathize with a good old colored "auntie" who keeps a little vegetable stand in Centre Market, Washington, says the New York Tribune.

A woman who was ordering a lot of nice things to be sent to camp remarked to the old "auntie" that it was dreadfully hot.

"'Deed 'tis, chile," said the old woman. "'Deed 'tis, and 'taint right fur it to be hot dis way. Forty yeahs ago when de blessed Lawd made de weather we didn't have no sich stewin' days, honey; no, indeed; but now dese yere men up to de Weather Buro has de makin' ob de weather; they cert'ny does send us anything they pleases and they ain't skilful, chile, they ain't skilful."

One Minute Cough Cure surprises people by its quick cures and children may take it in large quantities without the least danger. It has won for itself the best reputation of any preparation used today for colds, croup, tickling in the throat or obstinate coughs. Howard Gardner.

"Do yo think the money question will cut any figre in the political campaign?" "Well, rather. The candidate who doesn't shell out freely may as well quit running right now."—Chicago News.

WELCOME HOME!

The Second Regiment Boys Greeted in Raleigh.

"Welcome home! North Carolina greets you and blesses you for nobly upholding her honor."

Such is the greeting the gallant men of the Second regiment are receiving on their return home from garrison duty along the south Atlantic coast. This is the greeting Raleigh gives them and these are the words they will hear from hundreds of enthusiastic welcomers all over the State as they go out to their homes in a few days.

The freedom from strict military discipline and the plaudits of home-folks will be grateful sounds to these boys who have for many weary months known only the rigors of camp life. To at least 95 per cent of them the thought of disbanding is most welcome and the anticipation of the home-going brings joy sufficient to make up for all the hardships of the last three months' service.

The home-coming of the Second North Carolina volunteer infantry was without incident on the way, without any display here, other than the march to camp. The Tybee companies, Fayetteville and Greenville, under command of Major Wilder, arrived first. They reached here at 9 o'clock and proceeded immediately to Camp Bryan Grimes, near the fair grounds, where they pitched their tents.

Shortly afternoon the Port Royal companies—Greensboro and Gastonia—under command of Major Dixon, came. They marched to Jones' warehouse where they are now, comfortably quartered. They could not go into camp, owing to the fact that their tents were blown away in the recent storm.

At 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon the two companies—Marion and Tarboro—that have been at St. Francis Barracks, under command of Major Cotton, came in, having been on the way ever since 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. They went immediately out to camp and proceeded to make themselves as comfortable as possible.

The six companies at St. Simon's Island, under command of Col. Burgwyn, are expected this morning. Half of them will come over the Seaboard and half over the Southern railway.

The Tybee and Port Royal troops came by way of the Seaboard and the St. Augustine companies over the Southern. It took three special trains of nine coaches each—six passenger cars, one baggage car, one Pullman and one stock car.—News and Observer.

Naval Fight.

Madrid, Sept. 12.—Captain Aunon, Minister of Marine, received today an important dispatch from the Phillipines describing a conflict between the Spanish gunboats and an insurgent's flotilla, in which the former successfully prevented an insurgent landing in the Visayas. According to the dispatch the insurgents had five vessels, all of which were sunk. The Spaniards had no loss, but the telegram asserts that hundreds of the insurgents are believed to have perished.

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23rd, says; "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., of Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by C. E. Holton.

More than twenty million free samples of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve have been distributed by the manufacturers. What better proof of their confidence in it's merits do you want? It cures piles, burns, scalds, sores, in the shortest space of time. Howard Gardner.

TOOK NO EXCEPTIONS.

Statement By The Ladies as to The "Diamong Ring Episode."

The following appeared in the Sunday News and Observer as a special to that paper from Roxboro. It is signed by a sufficient number of the very best people of that town to forever set at rest the ridiculations imputations regarding the "diamoud ring episode:"

We, the undersigned, beg to submit that we were present and heard the lecture of Dr. John C. Kilgo, delivered here October 30, 1896. The doctor was here by special request and his address was a purely literary one. We were highly entertained by his able, learned and polished discourse. To the "diamond ring episode," about which so much has recently been published, we confess we took no exceptions. If there was any part of his speech disrespectful about ladies, we didn't hear it. On this and the many other occasions we have had the pleasure of hearing Dr. Kilgo, judging by the lofty sentiment of his speeches and what we know of him, is that he would be about the last person in the world to say anything derogatory of woman.

(Signed) Mrs. R. I. Featherston, Mrs. J. A. Long, Miss Anna Webb, Mrs. S. B. Winstead, Mrs. N. E. Coltrane, Miss Maggie Long, Mrs. W. H. Harris, Mrs. J. S. Merritt, Mrs. L D. Chambers, Miss Jesse Webb, Mrs. E. G. Thompson, Miss Evie Street, Mrs. W. E. Webb, Miss Fann'e Sergeant, Mrs. Hugh Woods, Miss Bertha Field, Miss Mollie Brooks, R. I. THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

An Ideal Tourisy Trip to the North and East, via "Chesapeake Line."

The pleasure-seeking tourist can accomplish no more delightful rail and water journey to the North or East than via the Southern railway to Norfolk, thence the Chesapeake Line steamers to Baltimore. The Chesapeake Line is the fast mail route. The fleet consists of the most magnificent steamships afloat, The City of Atlanta, Charlotte, Danville and Baltimore, leaving Norfolk every week day at 5:45 for Baltimore, touching at Old Point Comfort. These ships are especially constructed for the Bay service, and their appointments are as perfect as the most fastidious taste can suggest.

The cousine is unexcelled, and every attention possible is shown to the traveler.

The connection with the Southern Railway, arriving at Norfolk at 7:50 a. m., permits a day's stay over at that point, giving an opportunity to visit Old Point Comfort (Fort Monroe) Virginia Beach and Newport News.

For rates, through tickets, and other information, call on any agent Southern Railway, or write R. L. Vernon, Trav. Pass. Agent, Charlotte, N. C.

You invite disappointment when you experiment. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are pleasant, easy, thorough little pills. They cure constipation and sick headache just as sure as you take them. Howard Gardner.

Discovered by a Woman

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hammick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

An Object of Pity.

Not the portly, pleasant faced, good humored gentleman who is dressed in one of our snug and correct fitting Hamburger Stouts, but that big fat fellow who shows by his manner that he feels that the world is against him—and it is all because his clothes don't fit. It is not his fault, but great misfortune. He bought before seeing us.

Fall suits ready for delivery. Our stouts run in sizes from 35 to 50.

His father, owner of the Reporter, has assumed editorial charge of that paper again. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Maxwell passed through at noon today en route to their home at Jonesboro. Mr. Maxwell has been quite sick with fever at Oak Ridge and Mrs. Maxwell has been with him for the past few days. His health is much improved now and we hope he may soon be entirely recovered.

Blind and Drunk.

Daniel Simmons, a blind colored man, imbibed too freely yesterday afternoon and raised a rucus at his brother's house, corner Lindsay and Gilmer streets. Daniel lives with his brother and when he gets drunk is blind and deaf to reason also. Yesterday he broke out windows, tried to break down a door and smashed everything he could find. He said some very unpleasant things to his brother's wife and tried to hit her with an axe. He waked up sober this morning and found himself in the lock-up His brother is trying to get him out of trouble and more especially out of the lock-up, but up to noon he had not succeeded.

A Cuban Alligator.

A small Cuban alligator attracted a great deal of attention at the depot while No 36 stopped here. The proud possessor of the "green-eyed monster" was a private in the Seventy-first New York. He said the 'gator was caught at Baiquiri by a little Cuban girl on the day of the fight at that place and presented to him soon afterward. His Company (G) went through the whole campaign without the loss of a man, either by bullet or disease. The private did not fail to denounce the Cubans as the meanest, dirtiest things in human form.
